SPECIAL CONCERT PERFORMANCE on June 24th, 6:00 p.m.

Prelude Concert Band is for students who have had 1 year of instruction on their instrument. This beginner group will focus on continuing to learn fundamental skills as well as building ensemble skills. Students will also participate in theme days, games, and other various activities throughout the week.

Summer Swing Jazz Ensemble is for students who have had 3-4 years of instruction on their instrument and is interested in performing jazz, swing, rock, and pop music with an emphasis on improvisation and learning how to solo. Non-traditional band instruments such as Piano, Guitar, and Bass are included in this ensemble. Students will also participate in theme days, games, and other various activities throughout the week.

Intermezzo Concert Band is for students who have had at least 2 years of instruction on their instrument. We will be working on continuing to build upon and advance ensemble skills. Students will also participate in theme days, games, and other various activities throughout the week.

All students may bring a packed lunch and join in on Lunch/Recess hour fun from 12:00-1:00!

Camp tuition includes a t-shirt to wear for our concert. It's a GREEN year!
