

Summer Reading Suggestions

*Read whatever books you want, but here are a few

Shannon is learning about bullies, cliques, and how to find her true friends in this great graphic novel by Newbery-award winner Shannon Hale!

*first book in series

Mia Tang lives in a hotel and when she's not at school she manages the front desk and secretly tries to help other Chinese immigrants who need a safe place to stay.

*first book in series

Ryan Hart has a lot on her mind—school, friends, self-image, and family. Her dad finally has a new job, but money is tight. That means changes like selling their second car and moving into a new (old) house. But Ryan is a girl who knows how to make sunshine out of setbacks.

*first book in series

It's summer and we're all itchy. Want to know more about what's making you feel that terrible need to scratch? Try reading Itch!

A fascinating biography of one of the first female entomologists, the woman who proved that bugs were not literally "born from mud"!

When Jaxon is sent to spend the day with a mean old lady his mother calls Ma, he finds out she's not his grandmother—but she is a witch! She needs his help delivering baby dragons to a magical world where they'll be safe. And of course—everything goes wrong.

*first book in series

Enjoy meeting hilarious Omar, with his struggles with the class bully and excitement over Eid. An excellent choice for any Wimpy Kid fans!

*first book in series

Beatrice does her best thinking upside down!

James Bond meets Diary of a Wimpy Kid in this hilarious illustrated spy story!

*first book in series

My favorite middle grade friends, Ivy and Bean is a must-read for everyone. Ivy is a science nerd whose experiments can get dangerous and Bean is always in trouble for something. Together—lots of hilarious adventures!

*first book in series